About Camp Colley Foundation

Camp Colley strives to improve the quality of life for underprivileged youth in Phoenix. Camp Colley, located in the Ponderosa Pines of Arizona’s Mogollon Rim 50 miles north of Payson, is one of Arizona’s most effective intervention programs for at-risk and inner-city youth faced with life challenges. The camp provides Phoenix youth with a fun and unique learning experience in a natural and supervised environment. With additional construction over the next few years, the Camp Colley Foundation hopes to significantly increase the number of campers each summer.
