Camp Colley Foundation Announces Third Annual Golf Tournament on March 29
All Whiffs and Slices Help Benefit the Underprivileged Youth of Phoenix

PHOENIX– Feb. 1, 2008–Camp Colley Foundation, a non-profit adventure camp that provides recreational and educational opportunities for underprivileged kids, will be hosting its Third Annual Camp Colley Foundation Golf Tournament on March 29. With the Tournament, Camp Colley hopes to raise $75,000 to enhance camp facilities and send more children to camp in Arizona.

“Whether participants play golf or commit as sponsors, this is an excellent opportunity to make a lasting difference in the lives of Phoenix’s youth,” said Diana Brooks, president of the Camp Colley Foundation. “We invite members of the community to get involved and enjoy a fun day of golf for a worthwhile cause. Everyone wins in this game.”

The event will begin with a shotgun start at 8:00 a.m., at Aguila Golf Course located at 8440 South 35th Avenue. Organizations and individuals who wish to show support and dedication to the community can participate by playing in the tournament or by sponsoring holes, tees and greens. Entry fees for the Tournament are $135 per player or $500 per foursome and all include: 18 holes of championship golf, breakfast, signature tournament polo shirt, golfer gift bags and free range balls. Following the tournament, players will enjoy lunch and a raffle.

The Camp Colley Foundation strives to improve the quality of life for underprivileged youth in Phoenix. Located in the Ponderosa Pines of Arizona’s Mogollon Rim, Camp Colley is one of the state’s most effective intervention programs for at-risk and inner-city youth faced with life challenges. The camp provides local youth with a fun and unique learning experience in a natural and supervised environment. For more information or to participate, contact Kathleen Kilfoyle at 602-359-3922.

About Camp Colley Foundation

Camp Colley, a City of Phoenix program supported by fundraising through the Camp Colley Foundation, strives to improve the quality of life for underprivileged youth in Phoenix. Camp Colley, located in the Ponderosa Pines of Arizona’s Mogollon Rim 50 miles north of Payson, is one of Arizona’s most effective intervention programs for at-risk and inner-city youth faced with life challenges. The Camp provides Phoenix youth with a fun and unique learning experience in a natural and supervised environment. With additional construction over the next few years, the Foundation hopes to significantly increase the number of campers each summer.
