Camp Colley Foundation Holds Fourth Annual Golf Tournament on March 21 Each Swing Gives Underprivileged Youth of Phoenix a Chance to Attend Adventure Camp

PHOENIX– Jan. 21, 2009– Camp Colley Foundation's fourth annual Golf Tournament, presented by Amon Builders, Inc. and benefiting underprivileged youth in the Phoenix area, will take place on Saturday, March 21 at the newly renovated Papago golf course. With the Tournament, Camp Colley invites members of the community to get involved and enjoy a fun day of golf for a worthwhile cause where everyone is a winner. Through the Tournament, Camp Colley Foundation hopes to raise at least $50,000 to enhance camp facilities and send more children to the adventure camp this summer. The Camp Colley Foundation strives to improve the quality of life for underprivileged youth in Phoenix and Camp Colley is known as one of the state's most effective intervention programs for at-risk and inner-city youth faced with life challenges.

"You can't put a price on the outdoors experience Camp Colley provides to the children," said Diana Brooks, president of the Camp Colley Foundation. "Whether you want to play golf or commit as a sponsor, this is an excellent opportunity to make a lasting difference in the lives of Phoenix's youth." The camp provides local youth with a fun and unique learning experience in a natural and supervised environment. In fact, for these deserving kids, the life-changing adventure is free and Camp Colley is the only outdoor camp in Arizona that provides youth this type of opportunity at no cost to them or their families.

The Fourth Annual Golf Tournament will begin with a shotgun start at 8 a.m., at Papago Golf Course. Organizations and individuals who wish to show support and dedication to the community can participate by playing in the tournament or by sponsoring holes and tees. The entry fee for the Tournament is $135 per player or $500 per foursome and includes: 18 holes of championship golf, breakfast, signature tournament polo shirt, golfer gift bags and free range balls, lunch and a raffle immediately following the tournament.

About Camp Colley Foundation

Camp Colley, a City of Phoenix program supported by fundraising through the Camp Colley Foundation, strives to improve the quality of life for underprivileged youth in Phoenix. Camp Colley, located in the Ponderosa Pines of Arizona's Mogollon Rim 50 miles north of Payson, is one of Arizona's most effective intervention programs for at-risk and inner-city youth faced with life challenges. The Camp provides Phoenix youth with a fun and unique learning experience in a natural and supervised environment. With additional construction of three more sleep cabins over the next few years, the Foundation hopes to significantly increase the number of campers each summer and year round, by extending the camping program into the winter months.
